III. AGENDA ITEMS

- Consider an Application for a New Class D (Restaurant) Liquor License with Stock Transfer for Jam 5 Inc. (d/b/a Mac's on Slade) at 117 W. Slade Street - Approved by Roll Call

Village Attorney Patrick Brankin explained history of Mac's on Slade: ownership, the lack of adherence to the Village Codes, ownership changes, a license hearing, license suspension, fees due to the Village, delay in filing proper paperwork. As a result of the change in ownership and subsequent cancellation of the previous liquor license, the petitioners have requested the issuance of a new Class D (Restaurant) Liquor License. Action is at the discretion of the Commission.

Laurie Joseph, Palatine, Jeff Van Horn, Palatine, and Attorney Michael Morrisroe, Bloomingdale, IL. were present.

Mayor Schwantz stressed the importance of the liquor license to business, and the huge responsibility to adhere to the rules associated with the privilege of holding a liquor license. In July, Mac's was alerted that any change in ownership required a 30 day notice. There is no record of change in ownership. The Village had to track the owner down. This is an affront to the Village of Palatine.

Schwantz took affront to what was posted on social media accusing the Village of shutting down Mac's, blaming the Village "due to circumstances beyond our control." Schwantz assured the petitioners that nothing was out of the owners' control. Schwantz warned them to manage the social media and to have the utmost respect for Village Code. On a more positive note, Schwantz stated that there have not been any police calls to Mac's; the business is well received and enjoyed by the public. The Village wants to see Mac's succeed.

Van Horn stated he respects the Village and the Village Manager.

Councilman Helms stressed the extent to which staff has worked with Mac's to stay in business, but it has been a challenge. Helms said asking permission to follow the Code is good, asking for forgiveness for not following Code is not. If a resident or business errs, the Village will not be forgiving. Helms warned, from now on there is no room for error of Mac's part.

Van Horn observed that the Village of Palatine is full of rumors. He has tried to remain silent.

Councilman Kozlowski said five chances are three too many for giving a second chance for the privilege of holding a liquor and business license. He cannot support the request.

Schwantz stated if this passes, we will start new tomorrow. Hopefully Attorney Morrisroe will continue to provide guidance. A new license must be paid for prior to issuance.
